

An act for the relief Margaret Yingling of Frederick county; severally endorsed, "will pass," Also,

An act to incorporate a company in the city of Baltimore, to be called, The Mechanical Fire Company, endorsed, "will pass, with the proposed amendments;" which amendments were read the first, and, by a special order, the second time, and severally assented to. And,

An act for the relief of Levin Tyler, guardian of Samuel C. Broughton, Patty Ann Broughton, and Rebecca Broughton, infant children of a certain Ann Broughton, late of Somerset county, deceased; endorsed, "will pass, with the proposed amendment." which amendment was read the first, and, by a special order, the second time, and assented to.

And delivered a bill, originated in, and passed by, the senate, entitled, An act extending the time for completing the turnpike road, from Boonsborough to the Potomac river; which was read by its title, and referred to the committee on internal improvement. And,

A resolution concerning Aaron Crawford, of Washington county, endorsed, "assented to."

Whereupon, it was Ordered, That the said bills and resolution, except the first mentioned bill, be severally engrossed.

The house then adjourned until this evening five o'clock.

FRIDAY EVENING, FIVE O'CLOCK,

March 7, 1828.

A sufficient number of members to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, not having convened, on motion, the members present adjourned until to-morrow morning nine o'clock.

SATURDAY, March 8, 1828.

The house met. Were present, the same members as on yesterday.

After the clerk had made some progress in the reading of the proceedings of yesterday, on motion by Mr. Parran, the further reading thereof, was dispensed with.

The bill passed by this house yesterday, entitled, An act to regulate the gauging of casks, and the inspection of domestic distilled liquors in this state, was sent to the senate for concurrence.

Mr. Dennis submitted the following resolution for consideration:

Resolved, That the armourer at Annapolis be, and he is hereby required, to deliver to captain Thomas Hope, of Harford county, any arms or accoutrements, not exceeding sixty of each, which the said Hope may select, on his giving such security for the safe keeping and return of the same, as the governor and council may require.